Latest Cipher Dispatch from Valparaiso.

THE MOBBING OF THE SAILORS.

Captain Schley, Commander of the Baltimore, Makes His Report to the Secretary of the Navy—No Instructions Sent from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The only Chilean news received here yesterday was in the form of a cipher dispatch from Captain Schley, commander of the United States steamship Baltimore, dated Valparaiso. The dispatch, which was not translated until 9 o'clock last night, reads as follows:

VALPARAISO, Oct. 31, 1891.

Secretary of the Navy: Petty Officer Johnson, in whose arms Riggin was killed, declares that the act was done by the police guard. Apprentice Williams reports that he was arrested by a mounted policeman, who placed catgut nippers around his wrist and started his horse into a gallop, throwing him down. After that the policeman walked his horse.

Coal Heaver McWilliams was arrested and taken to prison with catgut nippers around his wrists and lasso around his neck. He was bitten in the arm after arrest.

Apprentice Talbot was arrested, catgut nippers were placed around his wrists, and on the way to prison he was struck repeatedly by police.

Petty Officer Hamilton, dangerously wounded and unconscious, was dragged to prison. One of my people trying to make him comfortable, was threatened with the butt of a musket and made to desist. My men in prison were examined secretly, although I sent an officer to the court to request authority to allow his presence. The request was denied on account of the proceedings being secret. Before discharge my men were required to sign a paper, but before doing it Rinehar asked a court official the meaning of the paper. He was informed that it was a mere form stating that the signer was not engaged in the trouble. Two are dead, three are dangerously wounded and about fifteen are slightly injured. Surgeons believe the wounded are out of danger.

Signed) SCHLEY.

WINFIELD S. SCHLEY.

The seamen whose names are referred to in the above dispatch are as follows: Boatswain's mate, Charles W. Riggin, twenty-eight years old; enlisted at League Island, Pa.; killed.

In addition to those mentioned above, according to the dispatch previously received, Coal Heaver William Turnbull was killed; age twenty-three; enlisted at Boston, Mass.

Assistant Secretary Seeley received this dispatch in cipher yesterday afternoon and last night, after it had been translated, gave it to the press. He asked if any additional instructions had been sent to Captain Schley, he remarked that Captain Schley's dispatch was all he had to make public relating to Chilean affairs.

MOBBING OF THE SAILORS.

Another Account of the Dastardly Work of the Valparaiso Mob.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A Valparaiso cable to The Herald gives the following account of the attack on our sailors: Captain Schley's men had been on board the Baltimore several months without liberty. When he arrived at Valparaiso he received the usual visit of courtesy and an assurance of assistance. Other foreign ships were daily giving their men liberty. Therefore Captain Schley sent 170 men ashore.

Of these only four returned drunk, four overstayed their liberty, thirty-six were imprisoned, seventeen were wounded, one was killed outright, and one subsequently died. Men received from five to twenty-two wounds, mostly knife and bayonet cuts in the back, which would characterize the assault as unprovoked, brutal and dastardly. The sailors in the streets were insulted by Chi-lans spitting in their faces. A crowd near by was waiting to attack them should they resent the insult. The Baltimore's men wisely took refuge in a tramcar. The crowd stopped the car and hauled the men out, beating them with sticks and stones and knifing them. One man fell with twenty-two stabs, and while a companion was assisting him to a chemist's policeman shot him through the neck. He died instantly. A second shot fired passed between the flesh and the shirt of another man.

An officer with a white cap, presumably a gentleman, drew his sword and slashed both the living and the dead. The attack then became general.

Sailors quietly eating in small restaurants about town were brutally beaten and stabbed.

Mounted police arrived, but instead of succoring the sailors they began sabering them.

One man was tied with nippers about the wrists to a horse, which was started at full gallop, dragging the man through the streets. Afterwards a horse was walked to another man, who was hauled to the station with a lasso about his neck.

There were plenty of witnesses on shore to the shooting, but they were afraid to testify. One wrote an anonymous letter to Captain Schley, and afterward visited the ship, but he says he would lose his life if he were known.

The men were obliged to sign a paper declaring that they were satisfied with the police conduct. The paper is in Spanish, and the men were ignorant of its contents. The Baltimore's men were unarmed. Those arrested were searched at the station. Only six pocketknives were found. The Chilean investigation was secret. The men's cause was unrepresented.

SWINDLING THE FARMERS.

Minnesota Farmers Taken In by Agency of the Chicago Purchasing Agency.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—Several sharpers calling themselves members of the Chicago Purchasing company have been operating in Rice county, Minn., the past few days, doing a thriving business by swindling the farmers. They traverse the country with some person who is posted as to the standing and respectability of the farmers. After being introduced they offer to sell goods at wholesale prices, charging the farmer only $5 as the initiatory fee, which makes the farmer a member of said company, then proceed to show how the farmer is cheated by the local dealer and assures him he can save 50 per cent. by sending his orders to the purchasing agency.

They then send goods which they represent to be worth $125 at retail and close up with the farmer for $5 cash, initiatory fee, and his note for $80. The goods are found to be worth only about $40. They carry samples of pure granulated sugar, which they claim to supply at the rate of twenty-six pounds for $1, but receive no orders, letting the farmer order from headquarters. A large number of the farmers in the southwestern part of the state have been victimized and robbed of hundreds of dollars.

HAWAIIAN MINISTER DEAD.

H. A. P. Carter Dies at the Everett House in New York City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mr. H. A. P. Carter, Hawaiian minister to the United States, died early Sunday morning in the Everett House, in this city, where he has been hopelessly ill for the past two months.

Mr. Carter was born in Honolulu in 1837, of American parents. He was educated in Boston and then returned to Honolulu where he engaged in business. In 1874 he retired from active business. During this time he had held almost every position of honor and trust on the islands. As minister of foreign affairs of the Hawaiian government he assisted Minister Allen, the head of the legation at Washington, in getting up the ten years' reciprocity treaty, which went into effect in 1876. After this work he was appointed minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary to this government, and through his efforts the treaty of 1876 was extended another seven years from 1886. He had been sent to many of the countries of Europe for his government upon important missions.

RECIPROCITY WITH MEXICO.

The Mexican Minister in Conference With the President on the Subject.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Thomas Ryan, United States minister to Mexico, is at the Grand Pacific en route to Washington, where he will report to the president and Secretary Blaine the sentiments of the Mexican government on reciprocity and the results of the conferences on the subject so far held.

"Mexico is enthusiastically in favor of reciprocity with this government, and it is the ardent wish of the officials of the republic to bring it about," said Mr. Ryan. "The Mexican congress, now in session, favors the scheme to a man, and all are taking the keenest interest in formulating plans for the development of it. Before I left the City of Mexico President Diaz expressed himself on the subject, and was sincere in wishing for an increase in the excellent good will and commercial relations already existing between the two republics."

Squatters in a Snowstorm.

ASHLAND, Wis., Nov. 2.—Excitement grows intense as the date for filing on Omaha indemnity land approaches. Whole colonies of filers arrive on every train, seventy-five coming in a body yesterday from Eau Claire and a similar number from Washburn. Large numbers have gone on to Iron river, where they will squat on land and take their chances on the squatter's rights giving them ultimate possession of it. A terrific snow storm howled over all of northern Wisconsin last night, whitening the shivering forms of the land squatters as they hovered over their poor fires.

THE JAPAN HORROR.

It Grows in Extent of Destruction Done.

TEN THOUSAND LIVES LOST.

Eighteen Thousand Houses Reported Destroyed in One Province, and the Number of Persons Killed There Two Thousand—At Gifu Five Thousand Houses Destroyed, and a Life for Every House. Two Other Towns Reported Destroyed, but No Details.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—A private dispatch received here from Japan says that the loss of life by the recent earthquake which shook the island of Hondo and other places, is estimated to be very great. Over 2,000 persons were killed, and about 18,000 houses were destroyed in the province of Nagoya, on the island of Hondo, the capital of which is Nagoya, a city of 180,000 inhabitants. In addition to the foregoing, 5,000 houses were destroyed and 5,000 persons were killed by the earthquake at Gifu.

The towns of Kano and Kasamatsu are also reported to have been destroyed, together with fifty miles of railroad.

It is presumed that the fire which started among the wrecked buildings at Nagoya, as already cabled, may have had a great deal to do with the great loss of life which is announced by the private message mentioned. As the loss of life at Kano and Kasamatsu is not mentioned, and as these towns are said to have been destroyed, it is estimated that the total loss of life may eventually be shown to be over 10,000.

Additional advices confirm the news that there have been many wrecks about the island of Hondo as one of the consequences of the terrible disturbance.

The severance of telegraphic communication with the death-visited districts continues to prevent accurate details being gathered as to the extent of the calamity.

Sandringham Hall.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Sandringham Hall, the residence of the Prince of Wales, was partly destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Fortunately the fire had started in the upper part of the structure, and was prevented from working its way downward. But the second and third floors, the roof and much of the valuable furniture were destroyed, and the rooms below greatly damaged by water before the fire was extinguished. The damage amounts to £20,000. A spark from a heating flue appears to have caused the fire. The Prince of Wales is on the continent, and his wife and two of his daughters are with the czar and the czarina, their aunt.

Peter's Pence Fund Growing Less.

ROME, Nov. 2.—The pope presided yesterday at a consultation of the cardinals with a view of reorganizing the Peter's pence fund. It appears that owing to rash speculations on the bourse, several millions of francs had been lost. A vast amount of money had been invested in valueless mortgages for the accommodation of friends. The contributions since 1870 had averaged thirteen million francs a year, but the generosity of the faithful was fast abating.

Fighting in Irish Politics.

CORK, Nov. 2.—The two factions had a fierce struggle yesterday outside of Cork, where there were no police to interfere. The Parnellites came out ahead. In the struggle houses were wrecked and many persons injured, and a good deal of blood shed, although no fatalities are as yet reported. William Redmond announced at a meeting yesterday that he had challenged Dr. Tanner to fight, but that the doctor had declined.

Religious Persecution.

TIFLIS, Nov. 2.—Religious persecution is raging in a mountainous district near the Persian frontier. Four Protestant leaders have been torn from their families and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. One hundred and ten of both sexes have been banished and children kidnapped for the purpose of bringing them up in the orthodox religion.

War Preparations.

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The imperial government is keeping a number of people at the Spandau powder works busy making boxes in which to pack rifles. These boxes were formerly made in the prisons, and are now made at Spandau in order to give employment to persons who would otherwise have to be dismissed.

Relief for the Famine Districts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 2.—The Russian government has assigned a farther sum of thirty-two millions of roubles for the relief of the famine districts. A ukase issued yesterday prohibited the export of wheat unless the wheat has been in the exporting vessels for three days.

Dockers' Meeting.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Three thousand dockers met at the dock gates yesterday, and resolved to ask the royal labor commission to support a plan to enable the city to acquire the right to conduct the work at the docks, instead of the steamship companies as now.

Fight at Mozambique.

MARSEILLES, Nov. 2.—Mail advices received here state the Portuguese at Mozambique are quarreling with the British South African company's men. At a fight at Lorenzo Marani, two Portuguese soldiers were killed and fifteen wounded.

Kicked on the Head by a Colt.

ST. MARY'S, O., Nov. 2.—John Granger, a thirteen-year-old boy, living near Coldwater, was kicked in the face by a vicious colt Saturday, sustaining a fracture of the skull, and other injuries, which will prove fatal.

CONVICTS RELEASED.

Details of the Recent Troubles in the Tennessee Mines.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Details of the recent trouble at the Briceville and Coal Creek mines have been received here. The citizens of Briceville began to hear squads of men passing through the place on their way to the stockades between 8 and 9 o'clock Friday night. It was about 9:30 when two hundred men descended Walden's ridge, approaching the stockade from the east. They called upon Warden Cross to deliver the keys of the prison.

While this was going on the magazine was blown up, and the stockades surrounded by twenty-five hundred men, and Cross gave up the keys, and when the one hundred and forty-one convicts were released they assisted in burning and destroying the property.

The attacking party then moved on the Chumley, or Coal Creek, stockade, and a halt was made near there, and twenty-five men were sent forward to demand the surrender of the convicts. The men kept up continuous volleys from their Winchester. Only one guard was on duty, and he lost no time in obeying. The convicts were told to go, and many of them, as at Briceville, were given citizens' clothes. When the convicts were liberated, they plundered Chumley's store, and destroyed the stockade furniture. The office building was set on fire by the overturning of a stove.

The mob then descended to the valley, where they set off several dynamite bombs, and fired a small cannon they had with them. The racket occasioned by these discharges, together with the explosion of the ammunition stored at the Briceville stockade, which the fire touched off, created the impression among the non-participants that a small war was in progress. This, however, was not the case, as there was not a single shot fired at any man, or any personal violence.

The woods and fields and railroad tracks around the two stockades were generously strewn with the striped suits of the released convicts. Convicts in gangs of tens and twenties were seen wandering all over the surrounding country. One convict arrived at a small settlement near Coal Creek, who was still in his stripes. He was quickly, however, sent on his way rejoicing. Several gangs have been seen at various points along the K. & O. railroad. Whenever they asked for help it was freely given by the natives.

Governor Buchanan and Superintendent Wade arrived here yesterday evening. The governor will offer a large reward for the arrest and conviction of the leaders of the mob, and also liberal rewards for the arrest and conviction of all participating in the riot, the burning of the stockade and the release of the convicts Friday night. The guards at Oliver Springs have been strongly reinforced, and a sharp watch is kept to avoid attack.

Attorney General Pickle was seen by the governor, but having heretofore fully advised the state officers upon all legal aspects of the question, and it being no part of his duty to advise as to the policy of administration, nothing of an official nature passed between them. General Pickle, being constantly engaged by his duties in the supreme court, will not be able to extend such courtesies as he extended the governor on the former occasion.

WHEREAS, It is provided by Section 10, Chapter 204 of the Acts of 1889, that the lessees of the penitentiary on the escape of any convict shall be liable to pay such reward as the governor may offer, not to exceed $25 for each convict, and all the expenses otherwise incurred (including advertising), and capture and delivery of such prisoners to the state and its officers, now, therefore I, John P. Buchanan, governor of the state of Tennessee, do hereby offer a reward of $25 for each convict recently escaped from the branch prisons in Anderson county and their delivery to the warden of the main prison at Nashville, which sum shall be paid as required by law by said lessees.

No Further Outbreak.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 2.—No further outbreaks have occurred at Briceville, and the mines are all working on full time. The convicts are hiding in the mountains of Kentucky. The prison officials report that about 350 convicts have been released. Governor Buchanan has ordered the militia to be ready for duty at a moment's notice. There is much uneasiness at Briceville and at Oliver Springs, Tracy City and Inman, where convicts are employed, over a rumor that the miners throughout the state have organized with a view to liberate all convicts working at these places.

FOOLED WITH A REVOLVER.

Tragic Death of a Sixteen-Year-Old Chicago Boy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—"This is the way I'll kill myself some day," said sixteen-year-old Vincent Staffney Sunday afternoon, as he pressed a revolver against his forehead. He did not think it was loaded. He pulled the trigger and fell to the floor dead.

Young Staffney lived with his parents on Ladin street, and in company with his friend, Joseph Lizek, was preparing to go to a matinee. Staffney pulled a bureau drawer in search of some money when an old revolver caught his eye, and he playfully pushed the muzzle against his right temple. Lizek warned him not to fool with the weapon as it might be loaded. The next moment the lad was lying dead on the floor.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1891.

The outlook in Ohio must be rather "bilious" for the Republicans when it makes Czar Reed sick.

Mrs. JERRY SIMMONS, of Madison County, was shot and wounded by her six-year-old son while he was playing with a pistol. He didn't know it was loaded. Loaded pistols are nice playthings for children of that age.

MARSHALL FIELD & Co., of Chicago, a few weeks ago paid $3,000 tariff on $1,400 worth of pearl buttons. Mr. Field was lectured by Republicans for telling the truth about the matter, and bluntly informed his interviewers that every merchant knows the tariff is a tax, and his customers know it, too. Field & Co.'s customers will eventually pay that tariff tax of $3,000.

HERE is the matter in few words. The Commonwealth says: "Maysville now covers practically all the available territory within her corporate limits. If she expects to grow and become a city of the third class, she will have to take her adopted daughter, Chester, into the family as one of her legal wards. There is no other way out of the bottom, or out of the hill-environment situation."

The Cumberland Glass Company, of Cumberland, Md., at its last regular meeting declared a dividend of 100 per cent. The company was organized in 1833, with a capital of $15,000; its capital is now $70,000. For 1889 the net earnings were over $18,000. It looks like a glass factory would be a good thing to invest in. What has been done with that proposition lately made to Maysville people to establish such an enterprise here?

HON. L. A. RUSSELL, of Cleveland, refused to vote for Governor Campbell two years ago, but at the recent big rally in that city he was present, and fell in line with the following remarks:

"I want to say to Governor Campbell, that at one time I took the liberty of a Democrat and citizen and crossed his name from my ballot, but that on Nov. 3 I shall not cross his name but I shall put a cross at the left of his name. (Applause.) I have never in political matters abdicated or parted with political powers, and at the coming election I shall consider it my duty, my pride, my pleasure to vote for James E. Campbell."

The citizens of Muncie, Ind., have subscribed $200,000 to an "Enterprise Fund," to be used in securing new factories for the city. This money was raised in eight weeks. As long as her people manifest such a spirit Muncie is bound to thrive and prosper. Such a fund judiciously expended will add five times the amount to the value of the property of the place. Why won't men of means of Maysville bestir themselves and try to add to our industrial enterprises and thus add to the value of their own property?

McKinley Prices.

The McKinleyites, having learned that the average American citizen is not greatly attracted by the cry that a 'cheap coat makes a cheap man,' are now insisting that prices have not been raised by their law. "And they are wrong once more," says the New York World, "as was shown by Governor Russell in a recent speech at Lawrence, Mass., from a list prepared for him by one of the largest dealers in Boston:

Gloves cost in retail from 25 to 50 cents a pair now more than they did before the McKinley law was enacted.

Common lace curtains that cost 37½ cents a pair now cost 45 cents. Those that cost $2 now cost $2.40.

Flannel garments that cost $20 now $25. Pearl buttons have advanced from $9 to $14 a gross. Shirt buttons are $1.17 a dozen instead of 75 cents.

Common woolen astrakhan cloth costs $4.50 instead of $3.50 a yard.

80¢-plus garments have advanced from $9 to $13; woolen hosiery from $7 to $10.50 a pair. The rates of duty on certain kinds of cloth, including kersey, corduroy, cloth and French cloth, have advanced 30 per cent., while the prices have advanced from $2.40 to $4.40 per cent.

Underware has advanced from 10 to 25 per cent. Blankets have advanced 3½ per cent., and manufacturers refuse to accept orders for future delivery. Neckties have gone up from 33½ to 50 per cent. English waterproof cloths that cost $1.75 per yard now cost $2.25.

Glassware has gone up from 6 to 20 per cent., and crockery from 5 to 12. The price of common foreign window glass has advanced nearly 30 per cent.; of ground glass, 10 to 40 per cent.; of common American window glass from 17½ to 33 per cent.

"The prices on which these statements are based were obtained from a retail store in Boston doing a business of millions each year," adds the World. "They are the actual prices charged now and before the act for the same article, and many more might be added to the list. They answer completely the assertion that the McKinley act has not increased prices."

J. TALBOT JACKSON, of Central University, Richmond, won the prize at the inter-State oratorical contest held at Charleston, S. C., last week. The best colleges in the South were represented.

For the Farmer.

Mr. George Hughes of the Fern Leaf neighborhood sold his new tobacco last week to Mr. John W. Osborne, of Dover, at 8½ cents. About 8,000 pounds.

Mr. Scott Osborne, of Tuckahoe, has bought about 40,000 pounds of new tobacco so far this season at an average of about 9 cents. His brother Mr. John W. Osborne, of Dover, has bought about 30,000 pounds.

Theodore Louis, the great hog authority of the West, is of the opinion that three or four-year old breeders will raise strongest, healthiest pigs; and that immature breeding is one of the most serious causes of diseases in swine. A sow ought never to breed under one year of age.

The enormous exports of wheat during the last few months are soon to be followed by heavy shipments of corn. Last week freight engagements were made at Baltimore for about 2,500,000 bushels of grain, mostly corn, to be shipped to the Continent. All indications point to the heaviest corn exports ever made from this country, and at good prices.—Manufacturer's Record.

River News.

The L. T. Armstrong that was destroyed by fire last week near Selma, Ala., was chartered by the White Collar Line at one time.

Says the Courier-Journal "November being a wet month and snow having fallen in the mountains, we may naturally look for a rise in the river by the 10th or 15th of the month, if not before."

Railroad News.

There were fifty cars and a caboose in an eastbound C. and O. freight train that passed here the other evening.

The Louisville Post says: "President Ingalls started out to make the C. and O. road earn, in 1891, one million more dollars than in 1890. The road has earned since January 1, $3,967,775, which is $802,388 in excess of the earnings up to the corresponding date last year, and there are two months of the best of the year to make up the $200,000 yet short."

Pithy Points from Washington.

Without boys as fuel for whisky mills there would be no "whisky trust."

The most dangerous men in the State to-day are those who make and sell whisky.

The rum mills stop grinding when no men's boys are being manufactured into drunkards.

The most dangerous institutions to the peace of society and the State are the liquor factories.

All that's vicious, depraved and unmanageable in men finds ready response in the rum traffic.

No man who winks at the evil brought on by liquor can blame any other for his son's becoming a drunkard.

Just so soon as boys are withdrawn as feed for whisky factories, just so surely will these factories come to a stand still.

A man hasn't as much to fear from a neighbor that is a known burglar as he has from one that furnishes his sons with whisky.

Many a possessor of a drunken son might have seen it otherwise had he have done his plain duty towards the rum evil.

Withhold your sons by all the means in your power from the drunkard factories, and the latter will soon cease for want of material.

Were it not for the whisky traffic the business of courts would be inconsiderable, and taxes wrong from the people would go for some wiser and better use.

How To Take Out Spots.

(New York Recorder.)

If the spot was made by paint and disfigures cloak or gown, wet it with benzoin and rub with a woolen cloth; then wet and rub again.

If there is a grease mark on your prettiest frock, break an egg and touch the place with a bit of the yolk delicately, then lay a piece of white linen over the fabric; repeat with fresh water three or four times. Take away the linen and rinse the spot with cold water.

If you have dropped ink on white paper, you can take it out with a camel's hair brush dipped in a solution of oxalic acid.

If you have dropped ink on a white apron, you should wash it with oxalic acid and then with warm water.

If it is a fruit stain that spoils the apron, rub with yellow soap, put on wet starch and hang in the sun several days.

If it is a case of iron rust, dip in tartaric acid and hang in the sun.

If tar has done the mischief, rub with spirits of turpentine.

Finger marks yield most easily to javelle water.

Degradation of Pennsylvania Politics.

The story of the political enslavement of the State of Pennsylvania by bosses in politics, to a degree, perhaps, which no other State in the Union has reached, is told in the November number of the Forum by Mr. Herbert Welsh, the leader of the Independents in Philadelphia. The beginning of this boss rule was the rise of the elder Cameron, whom Mr. Lincoln was obliged to depose from his Cabinet, and who secured the succession of his son in the United States Senate. Beginning with this early chapter in the degradation of Pennsylvania politics, Mr. Welsh traces the consequences through regime of Mr. Quay, and he brings his narrative down to the present time, when the revolt against corruption caused the election of Governor Pattison, and the disclosure of the robberies of the State and the failures of the banks in Philadelphia.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

SWEPT BY A FIRE.

Disastrous Conflagration at North Baltimore, Ohio.

FORTY BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

Almost the Entire Business Portion of the Town Wiped Out, Entailing a Loss of Nearly a Quarter of a Million Dollars—Other Losses by Fire.

FOSTORIA, O., Nov. 2.—The business portion of North Baltimore, fifteen miles west of this city, was almost wiped out of existence about 11 o'clock Friday night by fire. It started in a poker room back of Dillinger's block, and, fanned by a fierce gale, the Dillinger block was soon in flames. They then leaped across the street, and in an indescribably short time a dozen buildings were on fire, and the city virtually without fire protection.

The Fostoria department were taken up on a special, arriving about 1 o'clock, and did good service, and in a measure stopped the mad career of the destroying element, but not until four squares of business rooms and residences were licked up.

The heaviest losers are: Lampon, clothier, $12,000; Hotel Burkes, $11,000; Charles Pipher, $4,000; Jarecki, store, $10,000; F. P. Clark, $14,000; W. W. Lemon, $12,000; Schab & Weil, $12,000; S. A. Gumm, $9,000; Jacob Katzenmeyer, $6,000; J. A. Gibson, $14,000; A. G. Henry, $4,000; Buckeye Supply company, $12,000; People's bank, $3,000; A. H. McLaren, $5,000; Beacon newspaper office, $4,500; A. Stament, $3,000.

About forty business houses were burned out, among them being thirteen saloons. The entire loss will foot up not less than $250,000, with about $100,000 insurance.

Incendiary Fire at Sebree, Ky.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 2.—The large planing mill of N. Bennett, situated at Sebree City, a station north of Hopkinsville, together with several adjoining buildings, was entirely destroyed by fire. It is supposed to have been the work of incendiaries, instigated by the White Caps, in revenge for the movement against the White Caps in that section, and it is believed the design was to burn the entire village, which would have been accomplished had the wind been in the right direction. The loss is about $5,000, with no insurance.

Incendiary Fires.

BELPRE, O., Nov. 2.—The people of this place are much excited over a second attempt Friday night at incendiarism. The store of Gorby & Gatz, a large establishment, was set on fire a week ago, and with difficulty the fire was extinguished. Friday night the store was again discovered on fire at a late hour, and nearly was a box of matches. Only the absence of wind prevented a wide conflagration. Several parties are suspected.

Narrowly Escapes Being Cremated.

ANDERSON, Ind., Nov. 2.—Two dwelling houses in East Lynn burned to the ground Saturday afternoon. The houses were owned and occupied by George and Frank Hopkinson. The loss on buildings and contents will be $2,000, with no insurance. The fire started from an overheated stove. Frank Hopkinson was lying fatally ill of typhoid fever, and had a narrow escape from perishing in the flames.

Losses from Prairie Fires.

MANDAN, N. D., Nov. 2.—Losses from prairie fires in Oliver county, reported yesterday, turn out to be very extensive. There are a great many sheep out there herded on shares. Lakerman Brothers, of this city, lost $3,000 worth, Joyh Day $1,000 worth, and several parties have lost buildings, hay, wheat, etc. Much damage southwest of New Salem, in this county, is also reported.

Seven Buildings Burned.

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Nov. 2.—Blatt's hardware store, Weiss Brothers' meat market, Cunningham's grocery, Elbridge's grocery, the post office, Star restaurant and a new building not completed were burned yesterday. Loss, $80,000. Blatt is the heaviest loser, his property being valued at $25,000.

Marshes on Fire.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Nov. 2.—The marshes are on fire in this county, and hundreds of acres have been burned over. The farmers fought heroically to save their homes from destruction along the line of the Nickel Plate railroad. Thousands of tons of hay were consumed.

Entire Block Consumed.

IOLA, Kan., Nov. 2.—At an early hour Sunday morning fire broke out in the hardware store of Timmer Ewert and spread rapidly over the entire block, which was entirely consumed, causing a loss of $25,000, with insurance of $15,000.

Ship Timber Mill Destroyed.

WARREN, O., Nov. 2.—The Stiles ship timber mill here burned Saturday. It was the largest in the United States. Loss about $10,000, with no insurance. The mill will be rebuilt within three weeks, and no orders will be delayed.

Six Horses Burned in a Barn.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Nov. 2.—Georg Korn, a farmer residing three miles south of this city, lost his barn by fire at an early hour Saturday. Six head of horses perished. Insurance, $1,000, in Phoenix, of Hartford; loss, $3,000.

Apartment House Damaged by Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The new five-story apartment house, 119 and 121 West One Hundred and Fourth street, was damaged $30,000 by fire yesterday. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Dry Goods Burned.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 2.—At noon yesterday fire started in the dry goods establishment of Denecke & Yetter, and in a few minutes the entire structure was gutted. Loss $50,000.

Farmhouse Burned.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 2.—Clifford Nicholson's farmhouse, seven miles from here, burned Saturday evening. Loss, $2,500.

SYSTEMATIC SMUGGLING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The recent wreck of the steamer Eldorado on the banks of the Bahamas has been the unexpected means of bringing to light what the custom house officials in this city believe to be an extensive and systematic smuggling scheme which has been long continued and remunerative to the smugglers. A grave feature of the case is the suspicion that certain officials in the San Francisco custom house appear to be involved, unless all signs fail, in the way of conniving at the fraud. The treasury department at Washington has been communicated with as to the aspect of the swindle which did not come to light until a day or two ago, and Secretary Foster, in the interest of the government and honest importers, will hold a rigid investigation. There is nothing to show that the custom officials at New York are to blame for the reason that the fraud was in the class of goods which the law permits to be entered in bond and transhipped free of duty.

Owing to the reticence of the detectives of the special treasury agent's office of this city, whose investigations are not yet concluded, it is impossible to learn all the details which they have unearthed. For instance, the name of the New York consignee of the smuggled goods has been suppressed. But the story substantially is as follows: There arrived from Germany on Aug. 1 on the steamer Aller, from Bremen, nine cases of goods consigned to Sternburger & Meyer, of San Francisco, being what are known in the custom house as "I. T." goods—that is, goods for immediate transportation. The goods were not opened by the custom house officials of this port, and were allowed to be transhipped in bond on the Eldorado, which was to take them to New Orleans, where they were to be shipped by rail to San Francisco by the Southern Pacific railroad. The law permits that "I. T." goods can not be opened and appraised until they reach their port of destination.

When the steamer ran ashore all the cargo that was saved was brought back to New York and the nine cases in question being foreign goods in bond were taken possession of by the customs officials in order that the contents might be appraised and the duty exacted. Then came an important discovery. The nine cases had been entered at the New York custom house as containing linen towels valued in the aggregate at $944. The cases were marked "S. C. & K." They numbered from 98 to 106 inclusive.

When they were opened at the appraiser's stores it was found that only three of the nine cases contained linen and that the other six concealed fine kid gloves, which had been worth before they were damaged by water in the ship much over $10,000. The attempt to smuggle had been deftly managed. For instance, case No. 98 contained towels, but case No. 99 was filled with kid gloves; so was No. 100, while 101 was towels, 102, 103 and 104 kid gloves, 105 towels and 106 kid gloves. This distribution was made by some one having a knowledge of the practice of the custom house officials in selecting packages for examination at the appraiser's stores. From certain discoveries the suspicion has been going on for some time. There is reason to believe that some one in the San Francisco custom house was familiar with this arrangement. The smuggled goods would undoubtedly have gone through without detection if it had not been for the accident to the ship.

A PREHISTORIC RACE

Indicated to Have Occupied the Illinois River Valley.

OTTAWA, Ills., Nov. 2.—Evidence of the occupancy of the Illinois river valley by an ancient race of some culture were uncovered at Marseilles, eight miles east of Ottawa, Friday morning. While workmen were excavating for new gates just above the Marseilles dam they discovered what appeared to be a stone roadway.

Still further excavation have disclosed some fifty feet of a well made roadway of slabs of stone, each stone being some twelve feet long, from one to three feet wide and over two inches in thickness, with a break here and there, filled in with cobble stones, which were also laid in regular courses. The road, it is thought, was built by the Aztecs or the Tezcunons, who were driven from this region by the Indians.

BANK ROBBED.

Two Desperadoes Secure Nearly Two Thousand Dollars and Escape.

OMAHA, Nov. 2.—A special from Homer, Neb., says: Saturday night Herman Freese, cashier of the Homer State bank, was called out of his house by two men on the pretext of being consulted on political questions. A short way from his home Freese was covered with revolvers and compelled to open the bank and safe. Freese was bound and gagged and the robbers secured $1,600 in cash. At 7 a. m. Sunday Cashier Freese was found and released from his uncomfortable position. The same robbers visited Jackson, a neighboring town, and cracked the safe and secured considerable money. The robbers wore no mask, and the cashier has furnished the officer a full description of them.
